The wing extending toward the right of the picture is a gymnasium seating approximately 1,320 spectators, locker rooms, music room, and art laboratory.

The wing extending toward the top of the picture is the vocational building with facilities to offer business education, distributive education, home economics, agriculture, masonry, power mechanics, drafting, and electricity - electronics.

Funds have been authorized by the Board of Supervisors for completion of construction drawings, and architects are proceeding with work on these drawings. No date has been established for letting bids. Such date will be determined by availability of funds, completion of the drawings, and approval of these drawings by the State Board of Education.

What will they sing? They will sing whatever the audience seems to enjoy. The program will not be announced in advance because neither the singers nor the director knows what will be programmed until the show is in progress.

Born In 49th State

How many residents of Appomattox were born in Alaska? Here's one – Patricia Annette Thayer, born March 10, 1964 in the U S Air Force hospital to Betty Nash Thayer and Harris Thayer while Mr. Thayer served an eight year hitch in the Army. Patricia Annette is holding two of her favorite possessions, a baton and a camera. She is one of "Freda's Flashettes" (pupil of Freda Jones) and enjoys using her camera to 'snap' her friends. She has both grandparents and great-grandparents living who are happy to know about her accomplishments. H. B. Thompson, of Rustburg is her great-grandfather. Mrs. Anna Thayer, of Savannah, Georgia is her great-grandmother. Mr. and Mrs. Allen Nash, of Spout Spring are her great-grandparents also. Her grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Hermon Nash, of Appomattox and Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Thayer, Sr. of Savannah, Georgia.
